What's happening in the news?

Let's have a look at the poster...

Ukraine Special

What are other countries
doing to help Ukraine?

Let's look at the story

Following Russia's invasion of Ukraine, thousands of people have left their homes to reach areas where they think they will be safe. The United Nations have estimated that at least 100,000 people have already left their homes.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson said that the UK needed to do everything it could to help Ukraine's economy and support its government.

Thousands of people have already crossed into neighbouring countries including Romania, Moldova and Poland.

Read the parable of the Good Samaritan...

A man was travelling from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was all alone, he was on foot and it was a very dangerous route. All of a sudden, some robbers leapt out from their hiding place, stole the man's money, beat him up and left him by the side of the road.

Shortly after, another man walked down the same road. He was a very important priest at the temple, but he just took one look at the man, crossed to the other side of the road and walked on by.

Not long afterwards, another figure appeared. He was a Levite, someone who also worked at the temple, someone who you'd expect to help. So what do you think he did? Rush to help the poor man? No, he did exactly the same thing as the priest, he crossed to the other side of the road and walked straight past!

Read the parable of the Good Samaritan...

Much later third man came down the road and he was riding on his donkey. This man was a Samaritan. The Samaritans did not get on at all well with the other people around them. Did the Samaritan walk on by and ignore the man who had been hurt by the robbers because he was not a Samaritan? No, he felt so sorry for the man that he rushed over to him, bandaged his wounds, helped him on to his donkey and took him to an inn in the next village. He gave the innkeeper some money to look after him until he was well again.

Jesus looked straight at the man who had asked him the tricky question and said, 'Which of the men do you think was a neighbour to the man who had been robbed: the priest, the Levite or the Samaritan?' 'I suppose it was the Samaritan', replied the man. 'You have answered correctly,' said Jesus. 'A neighbour is anyone who needs your help, so now you need to go and help you neighbour, too!'

What is compassion?

Share your thoughts to the questions below...

What is compassion? Who are your neighbours?

Can you think of a time in your life when you helped others?

Do you think the world be different if more people showed compassion?

What does the bible have to say?

"Generous persons will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed."
Proverbs 11:25

Christians believe that their behaviours and thoughts must reflect the kindness and compassion of Jesus and the love of God for everyone.

Time for prayer

Lord, open our eyes, that we may see you in our brothers and sisters.

Lord, open our ears, that we may hear the cries of the hungry, the cold, the frightened, the oppressed.

Lord, open our hearts, that we may love each other as you love us.

Renew in us your spirit.

Lord, free us and make us one.

Amen
